

INSTITUTIONAL LEARNING OBJECTIVES

Davis College maintains the following learning goals and outcomes, and anticipates students completing their program will be:

Competent in Biblical Truth:

Demonstrate knowledge through written and oral communication of learned concepts.

Servant Leaders:

Cultivate a life which demonstrates a biblical worldview in beliefs and actions through Christ-like service.

Diligent in Making Disciples:

Effectively apply skills and competencies to real world experiences

BRE and AAS CORE CURRICULUM PROGRAM OUTCOMES

Upon completion of their chosen certificate or degree:

Bible/Theology

1. Students will model commitment to the authority of the Word of God.
2. Students will evidence a foundational knowledge of the Bible and theology.
3. Students will deploy the tools and skills needed for a life-long study of the Scriptures.
4. Students will bear witness to the Word of God in their life.

Liberal Arts

1. Students will communicate with clarity and accuracy.
2. Students will defend the historical and current implications of the history of man, religion, and culture.
3. Students will exercise a holistic healthy lifestyle.
4. Students will argue the complexities of the scientific and quantitative aspects of the God-created world.
5. Students will apply a biblical worldview to the creation and evaluation of artistic expression.